THE BRAND NEW FEATURE LENGTH SPECIAL

Benedict Cumberbatch and Martin Freeman return as Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson in the acclaimed modern retelling of Arthur Conan Doyle's classic stories. But what if this wasn't the modern day? What if it was the late Victorian period? What if the world's most famous consulting detective and his best friend lived in a Baker Street of steam trains, hansom cabs, top hats and frock coats?

And further, is it necessary to continue iterating on this idea so fervently? With their comedic take on Sherlock and Watson's relationship, Ferrell and John C. Reilly, Captain von Trapp himself once played the famed British detective; twice, in fact. Robert Downey Jr. has played Sherlock in two action films; and a third is set to hit theaters in 2021, barring production complications due to the coronavirus pandemic, of course. Cavill's role in Enola Holmes is a relatively small one, but the character is still present the story. [So] we're all attempting to make one this year. Raised almost exclusively by her mother, an eccentric woman played by Helena Bonham Carter, Enola was never taught to behave like a lady, or at least not like one within society's strict constructs. As of now, it's unclear whether Coyne will revise Pearce's draft or start from scratch. 4. The mystery film, which borrows from a number of Doyle's stories and includes other famous characters such as Moriarty and Watson, premiered in 1922, but was believed lost for decades, until it was found and restored in the 1970s. Perhaps the most well-known modern Sherlock is Benedict Cumberbatch, who portrayed the detective for four seasons on the popular PBS show which shares his character's name.
